Money Cannot Buy It
For Sight is Priceless!

THE DIAMOND GLASSES,

Manufactured by J. E. SPENCER & CO., New York which are now offered to the public, are pronounced by all the celebrated Opticians of the World to be the MOST PERFECT, Natural, Artificial help to the human eye ever known.

They are ground under their own supervision, from minute Crystal Pebbles, melted together, and derive their name, "Diamond" on account of their hardness and brilliancy.

The Scientific Principle on which they are constructed brings the core or centre of the lens directly in front of the eye, producing a clear and distinct vision, as in the natural healthy sight, and preventing all unpleasant sensations, such as glimmering and wavering of sight, dizziness, &c., peculiar to all others in use.

They are mounted in the finest manner, in frames of the best quality, of all materials used for that purpose. Their finish and durability cannot be surpassed.

CAUTION.—None genuine unless bearing their trade mark stamped on every frame.

LOWELL & SPENCER,

Jewelers and Opticians, are Sole Agents for Bangor, Maine, from whom they can only be obtained. These goods are not supplied to Peddlers, at any price.

... of his cloak. The face is wonderfully lifelike and is overspread with an air of grave and thoughtful kindliness which seems to exactly express the prevalent feature of that dear and well known countenance.

It must be confessed, however, that the statue is extremely disappointing. Contrasted with the noble figure of Washington at the opposite corner of the square, it appears to be unworthy indeed of him who has not been inappropriately termed "the second saviour of his country," and this feeling remains even after one has carefully laid by any prejudice that may be excited by the repulsive tint of the new bronze, and the unspeakable ugliness of modern costume. There is a painful want of dignity and stiffness and ungracefulness about the new figure, and however like the latter feature may be, it was the duty of the artist to have thrown it in the background. As to the first trait, no one who enjoyed the priceless boon of having heard Lincoln deliver his more memorable speeches would be satisfied with the tame and vacant air of the new statue.

A "HEADLESS HORSEMAN."—At the battle of Woerth it is said that at the third charge of the cuirassiers a horse was to be seen going at full speed with a headless rider. The mutilated corpse was that of M. de la Futsoli de Lacarre, colonel of the third regiment of French cuirassiers, who had been decapitated by a cannon ball. Most people on reading this would declare that it was a mere sensation paragraph, totally devoid of truth. Such an occurrence, however, would not by any means seem to be an impossibility. Not long ago we directed our reader's attention to an interesting article published by Dr. Brinton, surgeon to the Philadelphia Hospital, instantaneous on the rigidity which forms the occasional accompaniment of sudden and violent death, such as results from wounds of the head or heart. The startling phenomenon sometimes seen on the battlefield, of the retention in death of the last attitude in life, has not escaped the observations of military surgeons, although the facts connected therewith have not been studied with the attention they deserve. Those who are familiar with the descriptions that were given of the Crimean battlefields, particularly that of Inkermann, will remember that the various attitudes and the expression of the features of the dead were dwelt upon. The report of M. Chenu contains a short account, chiefly based upon the communications of MM. Armand and Perier of the attitudes of the dead during the Crimean and Italian campaigns. At Magenta a Hungarian hussar, killed at the same time as his horse, remained almost in saddle, resting on his right side, the point of his sabre carried forward, as at the charge. Thus rigidity generally follows sudden and violent deaths, but not invariably. Dr. Brinton among his cases, gives one of a very striking kind. He states that a man wounded in the left breast at Belmont, Missouri, found a stray mule, which he succeeded in mounting. While in the act of riding the animal he died, but his corpse retained the upright mounted position; and on its becoming necessary to appropriate the mule to the use of a living wounded soldier the body was found to be so firmly and rigidly set as to demand a certain amount of positive force to free the mule from the clasp of the legs. Dr. Brinton is led to conclude, from his own observations and those of others, that this battlefield rigidity is developed at the moment of death, and that the endeavored attitudes are those of the last moment and act of life.

BISMARCK ON THE SITUATION. A letter from Count Bismarck says:

The next phase of this wonderful war will be the investment, and in time, it is hoped, the occupation of Paris, and all hope of a successful resistence being then over, after that there must be peace. The government of France, or those in power whoever they may be, cannot desire further slaughter, when all that will be required of them will be to give certain absolute guarantees that the peace of Europe will not again be disturbed by the ambitious aspirations or desires of their people, and that the miseries which they themselves have brought upon the two nations may never again be respected.

"I see I am paraded in the columns of several journals as having stated what the guaranteés must be, and must not be. Of course these statements are mainly romantic. When approached by gentlemen of the press I generally give them civil answers; their imagination does the rest. You know what guarantees are necessary to secure a lasting peace; it is rather a military than political question. No overtures of peace can be well received until the army is before Paris, but when the safety of Germany and the peace of the world is secured, Germany will not oppose the termination of the war, from which she never will retire until the legitimate aspirations of her children are secured and Germany is safe from future cruel an unnecessary slaughter."

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

Gov. Palmer withdraws from the Illinois Senatorial contest, which is now continued between Gen. Logan, Ex-Governor Oglesby and Koerner.

Austin Brooks, for many years editor of the Quincy, Illinois Herald, and a leading Democratic politician, died Tuesday evening.

The Nevada Republican State Convention was to meet at Elko, yesterday. Mr. Toille, of Story County, will probably be nominated for Governor on the first ballot.

Lieut Commander Edward A. Walker has been ordered to the Boston Navy Yard, and Commander C. Johnson is detached from the command of the Saranac. George A. Neuzer is detached from the Portsmouth Navy Yard.

Mild, certain, safe, efficient. It is far the best Cathartic remedy yet discovered, and at once relieves and invigorates all the vital functions, without causing injury to any of them. The most complete success has long attended its use in many localities; and it is now offered to the general public with the conviction that it can never fail to accomplish all that is claimed for it. It produces little or no pain; leaves the organs free from irritation, and never over taxes or excites the nervous system. In all diseases of the skin, blood, stomach, bowels, liver, kidneys,—of children, and in many difficulties peculiar to women, it brings prompt relief and certain cure. The best physicians recommend and prescribe it; and no person who once uses this, will voluntarily return to the use of any other cathartic.

JOHN H. LYNDE, - - PROPRIETOR

THURSDAY, SEPT 22, 1870.

ROME OCCUPIED.

The cable informs us that Rome was occupied yesterday by the Italian troops, without opposition. The poor old Pope who has seen his temporal power daily slipping from his grasp, is reported seriously ill, and has, with his Court retired to the Castle St Angelo, whence he witnesses the victorious entry of the battalions of Victor Emanuel. Helpless to prevent, Pope Pius, as the dispatches read, kindly forbade resistance to the overwhelming force gathered to force an entry to the Eternal city, and it is evident that he has accepted the situation with as good grace as was possible under the circumstances.

But from this hour his fancied supremacy in Italy has begun to go down. It has met a blow from which its recovery is impossible—Republicanism in Italy, like Republicanism in Spain and France, has acquired a new and profound meaning with the people. Even Victor Emanuel is constrained to admit—and to urge his admission, as an excuse to the Pope for the occupation of Rome—that the Republican element in this Kingdom would overturn his throne unless he accedes to the popular wish in his respect. The declaration is more important as indicating the growth of liberal sentiments than it is valid as a reason, so far as the King is concerned, for occupying Rome. But Rome is Italy as much as Paris is France. It would everywhere be regarded as mere madness if the Archbishop of Canterbury should attempt to make London the seat of the Archiepiscopal See, and if the Primate of England ruled in the city while the Parliament was denied all authority in the most important spot in the Kingdom.—Such is practically the state of affairs in Rome to-day, but Italy wants back its ancient capital, and the Republicans demand this of their king as the price of his throne.

The occupation of Rome by [illegible] people is the only proper solution [illegible] tion. In this there is no hardship [illegible] and no wrong to the Roman Catholic [illegible]. The temporal power of the Papacy has long been maintained only as a matter [illegible] pride, and not because this secular [illegible] was necessary either to the Church or [illegible]. On the other hand it has been a scandal and a weakness. To [illegible] body of the Church it has been a [illegible] anxiety, and to the Pope of constant [illegible]. There is not a single sound, valid [illegible] founded on the necessities of interest [illegible] Catholic Church in favor of maintaining the secular authority. The yielding of temporal power in no way demand the Pope should quit Rome. The ancient capital of the world can be the capital [illegible] the same time that it is the seat of the Holy See. The vulgar notion that the [illegible] quit Rome on its occupation by the [illegible] founded only upon prejudice. Instead of impairing the authority of the Holy Church, his spiritual rule would acquire and potency. Dwelling in Rome the Supreme Pontiff only, and seeking the spiritual welfare of mankind, the [illegible] would gain in universal recognition and esteem.

It is plain that in the end a republic will be established in Italy. It is more important now that the unity of the Italian people shall be consummated than that a republic should be established. But the people of Spain are pointing for republicanism. United Germany will be the triumph of free institutions. United Italy can have no other end. That the reign of kings and the authority of personal governments are nearly determined there can be little doubt. Europe has learned many lessons since the days of the French Revolution. Garibaldi has been the teacher as well as the champion of the Italian people. The occupation of Rome is the triumph of the people. The triumph of the people is the triumph of the republicanism.

A CORRECTION. A correspondent at Bath writes the Portland Press as follows:

"The classification of James M. Hagar, Esq., Representative elect from Richmond as a Democrat and a gulp surprises the whole Republican party of this county, and none more so than Mr Hagar himself. He declares he never voted the Democratic ticket in his life and he knows of no good reason for calling him such. A local question affected the people of Richmond and they elected him in opposition to the Republican nominee. Mr Hagar was put in nomination by Republicans and as a matter of choice between two Republicans the Democrats voted for him in preference to making a nomination of their own."

AN INDIAN SUMMER. Late advices from Tucson, the capital of Arizona, state that the place to all intents is in a state of siege. No mails were received from California from July 31st to August 20th. Ten or twelve whites were killed in the month of August in the vicinity of Tucson, and a number of Mexicans on the border of Sonora. Mail-riders, soldiers and teamsters were slaughtered; mails, mail stations and wagon trains were destroyed and farmers were abandoning their ranches. A war meeting has been held and liberal subscriptions made for protection against the savages. Companies of volunteers were organizing to act in conjunction with Lieut Cushing's detachment of the 3d cavalry. The Indians were absolutely free to commit any depredations.

CONSECRATION OF A BISHOP. At Concord, on Tuesday, Prof Wm Woodruff Niles of Trinity College, Connecticut, was consecrated Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of New Hampshire, the first ever consecrated in the State. The Bishop and Clergy assembled at a private house near St Paul's Church at 10 a m and transacted the usual business.—At half past 10 they moved to the church. The presiding Bishop, B B Smith of Kentucky, and James W Williams, Bishop of Quebec, leading, followed by other bishops and clergymen, about fifty in number. The usual morning services of the church were read, the music being under direction of Rev James Haughton of Hanover and consisting of the boy choirs of St Paul's Church, Concord, and St. John's of Lowell Mass. The sermon, by Bishop Doane of Albany, was a strong and able discourse, dwelling in Catholic fearlessness in church administration.—The Bishop elect was presented for consecration by Bishops Williams of Connecticut and Neely of Maine. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity.

The victory in the pugilistic encounter between Col. James Fisk Jr, and Max Maretzek at the Grand Opera House is credited to both parties in the New York morning papers. Maretzek has been acting as manager of Col Fiske's Opera Bouffe Company, but at the same time had been negotiating with Strakosch for conducting the Nilsson concerts at Steinway Hall. The casus belli was the application of "liar" and "thief" to Maretzek by Col Fisk. The Tribune says Maretzek came out the fight with a black eye, and disfigured nose, while Fiske retired without a scratch. The World says "three rounds were fought and the Colonel was badly punished, not, however, so much as to prevent his appearance in the proscenium box at the theatre that evening in company with the lovely Montaland."

The reported swindling of the firms on Wall St., Tuesday, is denied by both Maxwell & Graves, and Vermelye & Co.

WAR NOTES.

The French display marvellous activity at and around Paris. Earthworks are being thrown up at the northern approaches to the city and the defences on the other sides are being strengthened every hour.——The London Times says that the revolution at Paris is recognized as Republican and that at Lyons as Social. The red flag has been adopted by the latter.——The iron-clad gunboats for the defence of Paris have commenced operations.——General Ripley, an American now in Paris, has offered his services to the Committee of Defence.——Floating batteries have been constructed to defend the entrances of the rivers of France.——It is reported that a large numbers of troops and volunteers are at Lille, and it is expected that these and the troops now in the Eastern Departments, will soon create diversions.——The American branch of the International Association for the relief of the wounded soldiers, appeals to the American public to send in promptly generous contributions of money for the sick and wounded of the war, to be applied and distributed impartially to the needy of both armies and to the sufferers by siege, and famine, by cholera and fever. Contributions in money should be sent to Mr. Howard of the house of Brown Bros, at 59, Wall street, N Y.——The Prussian forces now before Paris, number 400,000, and Prince Frederick Charles has 150 000 between Metz and Rheims.——Great dissatisfaction is openly expressed in Northern Germany at the treatment of Gen Steinmetz, who is thought to have been sacrificed as being too popular.——M Thiers declares himself satisfied with his London mission, and expects equal success in Russia. He affirms that the opinion of England was much more favorable to France on his departure than on his arrival.——Lord Lyons occupies a chateau two miles from Tours.——The members of the Government were on Tuesday visited at Tours by the foreign ambassadors, who have arrived from Paris.——The London Times and other morning journals are irritated at the Prussian implacability. The Times says, "Prussia can afford to be generous. She should be satisfied now and treat for peace."——The Baden Government has formally rejected such decrees of council as conflict with her laws.——A Copenhagen dispatch states that six French iron-clads and two corvettes, a part of the French Baltic fleet were seen leaving the Baltic, Monday p m, about six o'clock, passing the Great Belt going northward.——Heavy siege guns are needed by the Prussians at Paris, but cannot be carried forward until Toul is reduced.——There is a strong opposition among German liberals to restoring the Bonaparte dynasty.——The tone at Prussian headquarters is indicated by a letter from General Forsyth, saying, "it is hard to tell what crowd the Prussians can treat with after reaching Paris."——Generals Forsyth and Sheridan continue to receive assiduous attention from Bismarck.——Minister Delbruck has left King William's headquarters for Munich, where the future organization of Germany will be further discussed. The question is whether the South German states shall simply proclaim adhesion to the North German Confederation under the existing constitution, or whether a constituent assembly shall be called and a new constitution adopted for both the north and south. Bismarck prefers the former.——Prince Albert has occupied the town of Nanges, 15 miles from Paris.——Large detachments of Prussians have crossed the Seine and are concentrating at Chaissy sur Seine, six miles south of Paris.——A considerable force of Prussian infantry and cavalry occupy Clamart, five miles southwest of Paris, and a similar force occupy Creteil, six miles southeast of Paris.

TERRIBLE DISASTER. The steamship Merrimac from Rio Janeiro, brings details of a terrible accident, that occurred on the night of July 7th, about [illegible] miles below Manos on the Amazon. Steamer Arary, of the Amazon [illegible] Company, and the Purus of [illegible] Company Fluvial, collided; and the latter sunk in three minutes after the collision. An explosion took place either from the water rushing into the boilers or from the injury to the boilers. Of the 204 passengers on the Purus only 73 were saved. Several steamers went to the neighborhood of the catastrophe immediately, but could find no trace of the missing passengers or crew. It is reported that the pilots of both boats were intoxicated.

SOUTH AMERICAN HIDE MARKET. Dates from Montevideo of the 16th of August report that the export market is in a highly excited state, and the prices for hides had advanced in Buenos Ayres to 56 cents, recovering 28 cents to cover in New York. The Montevideo market had kept nearly up to that of Buenos Ayres, and prices had advanced from 63½ to 66c for American hides, with the holders very firm at the latter quotations. The stock is very small and shipments to the United States during the past few months had been exceedingly light.

Trust What Time has Sanctioned. The maxim that the voice of the people is the voice of the divinity, may in some cases be open to doubt, but the testimony of honest and enlightened witnesses extending through a series of years and all to the same purport is worthy of credence, admits of no question. Upon such testimony the reputation of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as an antidote and cure for many ailments is based. During the twenty years that it has been before the world innumerable preparations intended to compete with it, have gone up like rockets, and come down the extinguished sticks. Meanwhile the progress of that incomparable tonic has been swift and steady—always upward and onward like the eagle's flight. Its introduction produced a revolution in therapeutics and it proved to be one of those salutary revolutions that cannot go backwards. To day Hostetter's Bitters is one of the most popular remedies in christendom, and commands a larger sale than any other medicinal preparation domestic or imported on this side of the Atlantic. As a cure for dyspepsia, bilious disorders nervous affections general debility, and as a preventive of epidemic fevers, it takes precedence of every other remedy. This fact should teach the ambitious country dealers who endeavor to foist their local abortions on the public in its stead how futile their small attempts to cajole the community must necessarily be. Where the game fish have failed there is no chance for the "suckers." sept10 sn deod&wly

COMING DOWN A PEG.

Dispatches received early in the evening intimate that Count Bismarck has manifested a disposition to recede from his extreme demands, and that he will induce the King to consent to treat with the Provisional Government as soon as its powers shall have been confirmed by a Constitutional Assembly. He objects however to an armistice. Special to N. Y. Herald.

Berlin, 21. The Crown Prince informed the Queen yesterday by telegraph from Versailles, of the investment of Paris from Versailles to Vincennes, the French troops have been driven back. The capture of an earthwork with 7 cannon was executed with little loss.

A dispatch from the Royal headquarters at Meaux, dated 20th, say the complete investment of Paris was accomplished yesterday, the King reconnoitered to-day fortifications on the northern side of the city.

Tours, 21. General Werder has refused to sign any more safe conducts for inhabitants of Strasbourg, a general bombardment of the city is about to take place. Special to N. Y. Herald.

Berlin, 21. Jacoby, leader of a Democratic party has been imprisoned at Kingsberg by order of the military authorities, for calling a meeting of partizans who drafted resolutions against forcible annexation of French territory. The Democrats of Munich have passed similar resolutions.

It is semi-officially announced that further unity of Germany will be shortly be secured by new political institutions.

London, Sept. 21. German forces have occupied Nemours.

It is said that Gen. Werder threatens to utterly destroy Strasbourg if it does not surrender.

A dispatch from Mundelsheim states that on Tuesday, Lurvette, No. 53, before the walls of Strasbourg, was taken by the Landwehr, notwithstanding a galling rifle fire.

The Freemasons in the French and German armies have given earnest evidence of brotherhood and humanity during the war.

Paris is entirely shut in and all avenues of communications are cut off except via Berlin.

An official dispatch from the Prussian headquarters before Paris, reports that a redoubt with 7 guns was captured by the German troops.

Another dispatch from King William to the Queen, dated Tuesday, says: The French abandoned the position near Pierrefitte, North Fort, St. Denis. At the same time the Prusso-Bavarian corps crossing the Seine near Villeneuve attacked three divisions under command of Gen. Vinoy on the heights of Sceaux and captured seven guns and many men. Fritz directed the movement. The weather is superb.

A correspondent of the Tribune telegraphs from before Strasburg, Wednesday:

The loss in the capture of outwork No. 53, was a trifle, only 35 wounded. The possession of this position is exceedingly important and renders the acquisition of others easy.—The defence showed suprising lack of vigor.

Another proposal for capitulation is expected soon. The siege only continues because Gen. Werder insists on unconditional surrender.

Special to N. Y. Tribune.

London, 21. A Special correspondent at Berlin, telegraphs to-day that the American Minister on authority learns that Favre will be received in private capacity only, and will be informed by Bismarck that Germany must insist as condition sine qua non of peace, on the surrender of forts on Moselle and the Rhine, by which Germany was threatened and attacked.

A dispatch received in London yesterday from Bismarck, says Favre was cordially received at the King's headquarters, at Ferrieres, Rotschilds Chateau. A preliminary discussion was held relative to time and modes, and convoking a Constituent Assembly in view of securing a sufficient guarantee for fulfilment of conditions to which the Provisional government may yield its consent. Special to N. Y. World.

London, 21. The British Cabinet has received no news whatever of the results of the interview between Favre and Bismarck; silence is badly interpreted here.

Dispatches from Tours announce that Vinoy's movement was a reconnoisance, and his object was perfectly accomplished. The fighting was not severe except at Chessy le Roi, and Vinoy withdrew his troops in perfect order un-prussed.

Madrid, Sept. 21. The Spanish towns on the Mediterranean coast are suffering from vomito. The disease has not appeared here.

ITALY.

ROME OCCUPIED WITHOUT SHEDDING BLOOD.

Florence, Sept. 22.—Rome has been occupied by the Italian troops. No blood was shed, which is altogether due to Papal tenderness, as the Pope forbade any resistance. The Romans received the Italians with the greatest enthusiasm.

REJOICINGS AT FLORENCE.

Florence, Sept. 21. The city is covered with flags in honor of the news of the occupation of Rome by the Italians. The population is nearly crazed with delight.

THE NEW CABINET.

London, 21.—A Papal organ in this city says the following will be the Cabinet of Italy under the new reign: Mazzini, President of the Council and Minister of Foreign Affairs; Cernuschi, Minister of Finance; Fabrizi, Minister of War; Parta, Minister of Public Works; Ferrari, Minister of Education; Mancini, Minister of Justice; Mussi, Minister of Agriculture and Commerce; Garibaldi, Minister of Marine.

LATEST.

London, 21. The Tribune's special correspondent telegraphs from Florence as follows: The Italian troops took quiet possession of Rome after desultory fighting, which was stopped by the Pope.

There were many demonstrations of joy here. The multitude entered the belfry of the tower and forced the keeper to ring the great bell. The Italian troops had orders to use the least possible force in event of resistance. The final policy of government concerning the Pope is still distrusted by the Left, who fear that it will yield too much to the pressure of Catholic powers.

—The Bath Times tells a very touching temperance story. It is about one of the members of the Bunker Hill Hose Company which was in Lewiston a few days since. His boot being tight, pained to such an extent that he could scarcely move, and move he must. Accordingly he stepped into a shop and buying a glass of the ...ardent, turned it into his boot, and proceeded on his journey. In less than two hours the whiskey had eaten its way out, and as he was bootless he found no trouble in locomotion. Truly it destroys the body as well as the soul.

—The Portland Star estimates the value of the buildings erected in Portland this season; it aggregates $400,000.

—Robert F. Robinson has been appointed Postmaster at Wesley, vice Abraham J. Drew, resigned.

—A dispatch reports the brig Rollerson, built at Belfast in 1846, as totally wrecked at Delaware breakwater, on the 19th inst.

—Mrs. Hoswell, whose husband tried to kill her in Hallowell a day or two since, was a native of Carmel.

—The trial of horseflesh between Belfast and Rockland, grew out of a walking feat of Mr. Elson. He performed the same feat on foot the week previous.

THE HALLOWELL MURDER. The inquest on the body of John Laflin, of Hallowell, murdered by Edward S. Hoswell, took place Tuesday. No cause for jealousy was shown by the evidence. Mr. Laflin went into Mrs. Hoswell's house, which was contiguous to his shop, to show her a carpet which he had purchased, and entered the house by her invitation, when Hoswell, who had secreted himself near by, rushed in and made an attack upon his wife. A struggle followed and she succeeded in getting into an inner room and closing the door. Hoswell then turned on Laflin. A Mr. Knight, who worked for deceased, singularly enough went to the shop that moment, and hearing the cry of murder passed around to the rear and saw Hoswell and Laflin struggling together, the latter with blood streaming from the wound in his neck. The alarm was given and a number of persons rushed to the place; but Laflin died before the doctor arrived. Hoswell waived examination before the magistrates and was fully committed. He does not show any sorrow for the deed, and asserts that he caught the parties in bed together, but as Laflin was fully dressed, and his clothing in order, the story is improbable.

After being arrested by Marshal Fowles, he said to him, while the man was dying, "Damn him! I have been watching him for some time and now I have fixed him." The murderer appeared to be entirely composed and seemed to look upon the dying man with a feeling of satisfaction. In his right pocket was found a six-shooter and in the left side pocket a bloody knife with which he had committed his foul crime. The murdered man, Mr. Laflin, was by profession a barber, which occupation he has followed in Hallowell for twenty years. He was esteemed as a peaceable and worthy citizen by the whole community, and for many years had been a member of the Methodist church of that city. He was about 45 years of age and leaves a wife and three children.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoswell were married about nine years ago, and ever since that time the pair have lived an unhappy life, as he termed it, "a hell upon earth." She is quite a fine looking woman, has a full, rounded face, dark hair and a rolling black eye. Although having received eight gashes about the head and neck, she is still thought to be out of danger.

The shop presented a sickening scene of blood and confusion. The ordinary tools of the shop were scattered about here and there, and the murdered man with throat cut almost from ear to ear, was stretched out on some boards, with his face covered with a cloth. A large crowd assembled in and about the premises, viewing the back yard, the dead man, and his blood, which was scattered about over the floor and the doors leading out to the back way.

The excitement on the part of the populace is intense. It was with great difficulty that the officers succeeded in arresting the culprit, as several attempts and loud cries were made to "lynch him." As he passed out from the door in the hands of the officers he received several severe kicks, but nothing of any great injury.

—The stable and ell of the house of Deacon David Loring of, Auburn, were burned last evening. The fire took in the stable from some cause unknown. Insured probably enough to cover the loss.

—The Bath Times says that the Morse family, of which Mr. William Morse of Phipsburg, is the oldest, has six members whose united ages average very nearly 80 years. Mr. Richard Morse, of Phipsburg, is 90 years of age, and taking this family of six brothers and one sister, we doubt if many families can produce a longer life record.

—The Bath Times editor has been shown a hemlock keelson from the wreck of a vessel sunk in Back river over sixty years ago.—The timber is in an excellent state of preservation. All of the iron bolts, excepting one, have rusted away, and barnacles were thickly gathered over this ancient dweller at the bottom of the river. The timber lies near the railroad wharf, is about 70 feet long, and forms part of the keelson of what was a ship of about 400 tons.

—The Augusta Journal says that there was a public installation of the newly elected officers of Asylum Lodge F. & A. M. and Accepted Masons of Wayne, at their lodge room, on Friday evening last. ARE YOU GOING TO ROCKLAND? If so remember that the LYNDE HOTEL is a new, comfortable, and well kept house, and that you will be treated courteously by proprietor, clerk, and employes. G. A. Lynde Proprietor, W. F. Bickford, Clerk.

MRS. MANCHESTER, the distinguished Physician, will remain at the Bangor House till Oct. 1st. Her success during her ten years' practice in the State of Maine, has been unprecedented. Many persons who have suffered years from numerous chronic diseases, have been cured by her after having been pronounced incurable by other physicians, thereby demonstrating how much greater the success of physicians who devote their exclusive attention to chronic diseases. Hundreds of testimonials from prominent and well known citizens of nearly every town in the State, can be seen at Mrs. Manchester's rooms. Call at once; her stay is limited.

TO THE PUBLIC. I wish to call your attention to this fact: That Nelson Shorty of Winn, was a cripple for some years and had lost the use of one leg—could not touch it to the ground and had not for years. Last Spring Dr. Fitzgerald, the Clairvoyant Physician, was advertised at my House. This Nelson Shorty called to see him. The Doctor looked at him and immediately taking a knife from his trunk, cut into the leg, and in five minutes the Doctor took both crutches away from him, and he has ever since walked and is now well and works daily on the Railroad.—This was a poor boy and as the Doctor made no charge for his services we think it our duty to make it known to the public. Under what method the cure was effected we are not able to say. M. L. ROSS, Proprietor of Winn Hotel, Me. A. B. CHASE, J. C. GRANT, Winn, Me.

TO THE WEAK, THE WORN, AND THE WEARY, the editor of the Boston Recorder says, "We can most unhesitatingly recommend the Peruvian Syrup, a protected solution of the protoxide of iron, to all the weak, the worn, and the weary, having richly experienced its benefits. It possesses all the qualities claimed for it by its proprietor.

THE

Central Railroad, of Iowa,

235 MILES IN LENGTH

NOW NEARLY COMPLETED.

This Company are now pushing their work forward with great rapidity, and the entire line necessary to connect St Louis and St Paul is graded and under contract to be finished this season. The fact that this enterprise has been undertaken by a combination of leading bankers and railroad capitalists of well known wealth, experience, and ability, insures its early completion and future success.

The road runs through the richest and most thickly settled portion of Iowa, and is built in the interests of the great Northern system of roads which centre at St Paul. The of the Company pay 7 per cent Gold Interest, free of Government tax, and are issued for the very small amount of $16,000 per mile. For the present, the unsold portion are offered at 95 and accrued interest. The attention of investors is invited to the fact that the road is now nearly finished, and that the Security is therefore entitled to a high rank.

First Mortgage Bonds

In our opinion, no class of investments has been found so uniformly safe and profitable as First Mortgages on completed railroads.

Of 2?? companies operating 30,000 miles of railroad in the Northern and Western States, on which there is a bonded debt of $662,000,000, we know of but two that do not pay their interest regularly.

We believe there will be no more favorable time to sell Government, and buy really First-class Railroad Securities—such as these—than the present.

W. B. SHATTUCK, Treasurer.

After a full examination, we have accepted an Agency for the Sale of the above First Mortgage Bonds, and desire to recommend them to our customers AS A THOROUGHLY SAFE, AS WELL AS PROFITABLE, INVESTMENT.

The greater part of the road is already completed and the earnings from the finished portion are already more than sufficient to pay operating expenses and interest on the bonds. The balance of the work is progressing rapidly, in time for the movement of the grain crops, which, it is estimated will double the present income of the road.

The established character of this line, running as it does through the heart of the most thickly settled and richest portion of the great State of Iowa, together with its present advanced condition and large earnings warrant us in unhesitatingly recommending these bonds to investors, as, in every respect, an undoubted security.

These bonds have 50 years to run are convertible at the option of the holder into the stock of the Company at par, and the payment of the principle is provided for by a sinking fund. The convertibility privilege attached to these bonds cannot fail to cause them at no distant day to command a market price considerably above par, besides paying about 9 per cent. currency, interest in the meanwhile. U. S. Five-twenties at present prices only return 5 per cent., and we regard the security equally safe.

PLAIN LANGUAGE FROM TRUTHFUL JAMES.

Which I wish to remark—
And my language is plain—
That for ways that are dark
And for tricks that are vain,
The heathen Chinee is peculiar.
Which the same I would rise to explain.

Ah Sin was his name;
And I shall not deny
In regard to the same
What that name might imply,
But his smile it was pensive and childlike,
As I frequently remarked to Bill Nye.

It was August the third;
And quite soft was the skies;
Which it might be inferred
That Ah Sin was likewise;
Yet he played it that day upon William
And me in a way I despise.

Which we had a small game,
And Ah Sin took a hand:
It was Euchre. The same
He did not understand;
But he smiled as he sat by the table,
With the smile that was childlike and bland.

Yet the cards they were stocked
In a way that I grieve,
And my feelings were shocked
At the state of Nye's sleeve,
Which was stuffed full of aces and bowers,
And the same with intent to deceive.

But the hands that were played
By that heathen Chinee,
And the points that he made,
Were quite frightful to see,—
Till at last he put down a right bower,
Which the same Nye had dealt unto me.

Then I looked up at Nye,
And he gazed upon me;
And he rose with a sigh,
And said, "Can this be?
We are ruined by Chinese cheap labor,"
And he went for that heathen Chinee.

In the scene that ensued
I did not take a hand,
But the floor it was strewed
Like the leaves on the strand
With the cards that Ah Sin had been hiding,
In the game "he did not understand."

In his sleeves, which were long,
He had twenty-four packs—
Which was coming it strong,
Yet I state but the facts;
And we found on his nails, which were taper,
What is frequent in tapers—that's wax.

Which is why I remark,
And my language is plain,
That for ways that are dark
And for tricks that are vain,
The heathen Chinee is peculiar—
Which the same I am free to maintain.

SACRED MUSIC IN NEW ENGLAND.—At the meeting of the New England Historic Genealogical Society in Boston, an interesting paper was read by Abner C. Goodale, Esq., of Salem, upon the earlier history of sacred music in New England from its earliest settlement to the beginning of the present century. The following curious facts were stated in the paper:—

He said, that the paper was the result of desultory study of the subject, extending through several years. The history of Puritan psalmody began with the Reformation. The popular state of the reform music was much derided by those who clung to the old usages, and the religious songs of the fathers were known as "Geneva jigs." The music of New England congregations was entirely vocal from the first, and in many instances the psalm was lined or "deaconed" off in couplets for the congregation to sing. The destruction of harmony caused by this practice, no doubt gave rise to a class of psalm opposers. The first music printed in New England was in 1690, and the first collection which has been preserved was published in 1698, and contained thirteen tunes, eight in short metre and five in long metre. About this time wind instruments were introduced. In 1713 the first organ in the country was set up in King's Chapel. It remained unpacked for several months, but when it was set up, it at once became a wonder. One old lady thought it was a pretty box of whistles, but an awful way to spend the Sabbath." The conflict between the people upon the subject of singing by rote, and the new method by note was alluded to. Among the objections to the change were these: It was a new way, not so melodious; caused men to be disorderly; was a useless waste of time, and that the names of the notes were blasphemous. The custom of "deaconing" out the hymns after being the subject of much derision and lampoon was abolished. About the time of the Revolution, this was rapidly followed by the choir singing, which the speaker regarded as a step in the wrong direction. In Worcester it was voted that the singers should occupy the front seats in the gallery, and in one instance, when the deacon persisted in lining out the hymn, he was overborne by the choir and left the church in tears, and was afterwards censured by the church. In another case a deacon waited until the choir finished and then commenced lining out the hymn, prefacing it by saying, "The world's people have sung, now let the Lord's people sing." The first instrument brought to aid the church music was a pitch pipe, then came the tuning fork, the base viol and other stringed instruments which preceded the organ. The introduction of the viol caused much opposition, and, in one case a minister introduced the service by saying, "You may fiddle and sing the 106th Psalm." The speaker closed by saying that the signs of the times clearly indicated a revival of congregational singing, and that the people were surely drifting back to the customs of the olden time.

A NEW REMEDY.—From Surprise Valley comes the following story, of an old fellow who got very jealous because his young wife went to a ball with a good-looking fellow, and staid out until broad daylight. The old chap went to a Justice of the Peace and told his story, winding it up with "I want yer to help me—for that ar' thing has been going on about long enuff."

"Well," said the Justice, "You can write down to Yreka, and see if some of the lawyers can't get you a divorce."

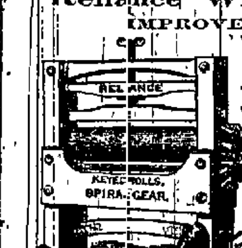

"Divorce!" roared the fogy man, "who the deuce wants a divorce."

The Justice began to get wrathy.

"If you don't want a divorce, what the deuce brought you here?"

"Why, I want an injunction to stop further proceedings."

WOMAN.

Females, owing to the peculiar and important relations which they sustain, their peculiar organization, and the offices they perform, are subject to many sufferings. Freedom from these contribute in no small degree to their happiness and welfare, for none can be happy who are ill. Not only so, but no one of these various female complaints can long be suffered to run on without involving the general health of the individual, and ere long producing permanent sickness and premature decline. Nor is it pleasant to consult a physician for the relief of these delicate affections, and only upon the most urgent necessity will a true woman so far sacrifice her greatest charm as to do this. The sex will then thank us for placing in their hands simple specifics which will be found efficacious in relieving and curing almost every one of those troublesome complaints peculiar to the sex.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu.

Hundreds suffer on in silence, and hundreds of others apply vainly to druggists and doctors, who either merely tantalize them with the hope of a cure or apply remedies which make them worse. I would not wish to assert anything that would do injustice to the afflicted, but I am obliged to say that although it may be produced from excessive exhaustion of the powers of life, by laborious employment, unwholesome air and food, profuse menstruation, the use of tea and coffee, and frequent child-birth, it is far oftener caused by direct irritation, applied to the mucous membrane of the vagina itself.

When reviewing the causes of these distressing complaints, it is most painful to contemplate the attendant evils consequent upon them. It is but simple justice to the subject to enumerate a few of the many additional causes which so largely affect the life, health, and happiness of woman in all classes of society, and which, consequently, affect more or less directly, the welfare of the entire human family. The mania that exists for precocious education and marriage, causes the years that nature designed for corporeal development to be wasted and perverted in the restraints of dress, the confinement of school, and especially in the unhealthy excitement of the ball-room. Thus, with the body half-clothed, and the mind unduly excited by pleasure, perverting in midnight revel the hours designed by nature for sleep and rest, the work of destruction is half accomplished.

In consequence of this early strain upon her system, unnecessary effort is required by the delicate votary to retain her situation in school at a later day, thus aggravating the evil. When one excitement is over, another in prospective keeps the mind morbidly sensitive to impression, while the now constant restraint of fashionable dress, absolutely forbidding the exercise indispensable to the attainment and retention of organic health and strength; the exposure to night air, the sudden change of temperature, the complete prostration produced by excessive dancing, must, of necessity, produce their legitimate effect. At last, an early marriage caps the climax of misery, and the unfortunate one, hurried so utterly regardless of the plain dictates and remonstrances of her delicate nature, becomes an unwilling subject of medical treatment. This is but a truthful picture of the experience of thousands of our young women.

Long before the ability to exercise the functions of the generative organs, they require an education of their peculiar nervous system, composed of what is called the tissue, which is, in common with the female breasts and lips, evidently under the control of mental emotions and associations at an early period of life, and, as we shall subsequently see, these emotions when excessive, lead, long before puberty, to habits which sap the very life of their victims ere nature has self-completed their development.

For Female Weakness and Debility, Whites or Leucorrhea, Too Profuse Menstruation, Exhaustion, Too Long Continued Periods, for Prolapsus and Bearing Down, or Prolapsus Uteri, we offer the most perfect specific known:

HELMBOLD'S Compound Extract OF BUCHU

Directions for use, diet, and advice, accompany.

Females in every period of life, from infancy to extreme old age, will find it a remedy to aid nature in the discharge of its functions. Strength is the glory of manhood and womanhood. Having received the indorsement of the most prominent Physicians in the United States, is now offered to afflicted humanity as a certain cure for the following diseases and symptoms, from whatever cause originating: General Debility, Mental and Physical Depression, Imbecility, Determination of Blood to the Head, Confused Ideas, Hysteria, General Irritability, Restlessness and Sleeplessness at night, Absence of Muscular Efficiency, Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, Low Spirits, Disorganization or Paralysis of the Organs of Generation, Palpitation of the Heart, and, in fact, all the concomitants of a Nervous and Debilitated state of the system.
